Basketball, Golf, Video Production & Jr. Focus Camp

The Focus Camp is an all-day camp committed to providing students an opportunity to develop their skills in a fun and exciting environment. The camp is unique in the way that it blends faith and the discipline of physical training. Each day begins and ends with an energetic gathering of the students from all the camps.

The Camp is directed by Robb Belschner, varsity women's basketball coach at Andover High School. Over 40 volunteers serve to make the Focus Camp one of the greatest weeks of a student's summer. The positive and creative atmosphere of the camp has resulted in many past campers returning as volunteer staff. This component has made the Focus Camp an ideal environment for mentoring and leadership development.

For more information about the different camps, you can go to our website at focusonthegoal.org

The camp is for students entering grades 3-9
The Jr. Camp is for children entering grades K-2
